

United Nations Climate Change Conference
COP 14 and CMP 4
Poznan, 1–12 December 2008

Welcoming ceremony

A welcoming ceremony, attended by the Prime Minister of the Republic of Poland, His Excellency Mr. Donald Tusk, and the Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Denmark, His Excellency Mr. Anders Fogh Rasmussen, will mark the opening of the sessions. The Government of Poland will then show a video on climate change.

Participants are asked to take their seats by 09.45 in The Stork Plenary to ensure that the conference can open promptly at 10.00. The ceremony may also be followed in the Alpine Accentor Plenary and on the CCTV monitors around the conference venue.

Reception

His Excellency Mr. Maciej Nowicki, Minister of Environment, on behalf of the Government of the Republic of Poland, cordially invites all participants to a reception tonight on the occasion of the opening of the Poznan United Nations Climate Change Conference.

The reception will take place at 20.00 hours in Hall 3, located next to the main blue entrance to the MTP area (Glogowska Street).

http://unfccc.int/meetings/cop\_14/daily\_programme/items/4556.php and includes links to the documents, schedules and other items listed.

Participants are kindly requested to retain copies of documents throughout the sessions, in order to reduce paper consumption.

Climate Change Kiosk

Located between Hall 8 and Hall 8A, the Climate Change Kiosk is staffed daily between 09.00 and 18.00 hours. The Climate Change Kiosk's primary goal is to provide information about the climate change process and the secretariat as well as the range of secretariat publications and digital materials.

Announcements

Credentials “Credentials of representatives, alternate representatives and advisers shall be issued either by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs.” Delegations are kindly requested to present the corresponding letters of credentials to the External Relations team in the Conference Affairs office, located in Hall 15B.

Delegation nameplates Delegates are kindly requested not to remove country nameplates from the meeting rooms. The secretariat is unable to replace these at short notice and this can lead to serious disruptions at meetings.

Pigeonholes for delegates	Pigeonholes for the distribution of official documents and messages, which delegates are kindly requested to check at regular intervals, are located in Hall 15B. Participants are requested to refrain from distributing non-official material via the pigeonholes.
Video conference facilities available in the COP 14 venue	A video conference service will be in operation throughout the conference, on a commercial basis. The service may be used by all participants to conduct video conferences with others anywhere in the world. The video conference service uses standard ISDN or Internet IP connections and will connect to similar equipment. Technical information and booking forms are available from the UNFCCC COP 14 website, under "Services to participants". Please contact Ms.Monika Stepien at +48 61 869 28 91 or by e-mail at: &lt;cop14@mtp.pl&gt;.
Webcasts of the sessions	For the duration of the conference, all official meetings and press conferences will be available live and on demand, with English or floor audio streams. On-demand files will be available shortly after the close of each meeting. A selection of side-events will be available on demand in floor languages. Please check the UNFCCC website for the date and time of webcast sessions at &lt;unfccc.int&gt;.
Paint for the Planet exhibit	"Paint for the Planet" is a UNEP exhibit of children's art that launched the United Nations campaign "UNite to Combat Climate Change" in New York in October 2008. The paintings are drawn from the UNEP International Children's Painting Competition and showcase children's fears and hopes for the planet. The paintings are on show in the central corridor between Hall 15 and Halls 7/8. The exhibit's theme is also captured in the "UNite to Combat Climate Change" banner hanging above the Climate Change Kiosk.
Security	Participants should ensure that they wear their conference badge in full view at all times, as the security officers may request them to verify their identity. This may lead to some inconvenience at times, but it is expected that participants will understand the need for such arrangements.
Lost and found items	Participants are reminded not to leave personal belongings in meeting rooms. Documents left in meeting rooms and on unattended desks will be removed. The Security office, located in Hall 15A, is responsible for lost and found items.
Information for participants	A booklet on the facilities available at the conference venue, entitled "Information for participants" is available from the Information desk in Hall 15B and also on the COP 14 website .
...inSide climate change publications counter	Participants wishing to distribute documents should contact staff of the Observer Organizations Liaison team on the third floor of Hall 14B. The ...inSide climate change publications counter is located in Hall 15B. Posters and flyers relating to side events may be affixed to the Poster boards available at prominent locations around the conference venue.
Meditation room	A room for meditation and prayer is available to participants on demand. Please contact staff at the Information desk in Hall 14B on the second floor.
Facilities for non-governmental organizations	Offices for the business and industry organizations (BINGOs), environmental groups (ENGOs), indigenous peoples organizations (IPOs), local government and municipal authorities (LGMAs), research and independent NGOs (RINGOs), and the trade union NGOs (TUNGOs) are located in Hall 14B on the first floor.

Events

For a full schedule of side events during the sessions and a list of the exhibits, please see the brochure "...inSide climate change", available from the Information desk and the Documents distribution counter, or visit the UNFCCC website. The secretariat would like to note that the scheduling of events remains dependent upon the demands of the negotiating process. For short-term changes please consult the CCTV monitors.

UNFCCC and related events

13.00– 15.00	CDM Executive Board: question and answer session The Executive Board of the CDM will report on its activities and answer questions from the audience. The session will close with the unveiling of the winners of the UNFCCC/CDM International Photo Contest 2008. The winning photographers – from South Africa, China, India and Brazil – will be recognized in a brief ceremony.	UNFCCC Ms. Joyce Malnaric jmalnaric@unfccc.int +49 228 815 1320	Chamois

European Union Pavilion

The EU Pavilion is located in Hall 9.

13.00–15.00	The implication of high oil prices for climate policy The outlook for climate change mitigation options could seriously change if energy prices increase over the long term. This side event looks at the implications for important energy technologies. An international panel from science and policymaking addresses the question: How could climate policy respond to high prices?	Energy Research Centre of the Netherlands (ECN)	Chopin
15.30–17.30	Gender justice in climate change policy Women and gender experts from around the world will present their concerns, queries and demands for making the future climate regime fair to women and men. There are effective mitigation and adaptation options ensuring gender justice, and tools for gender mainstreaming – we just need to use them!	LIFE e.V. and GenderCC – women for climate justice, Germany	Chopin
15.30–17.30	Information toolkit for post-2012 climate change policies The toolkit is a software package with quantitative information for the factual underpinning of the climate negotiations. It includes information on stabilization pathways, baseline projections, mitigation potentials, scenarios and costs, and country indicators relevant to the post-2012 negotiations.	Brinkman Climate Change Consultancy, Energy Research Centre of the Netherlands (ECN)	Rubinstein
18.00–20.00	Innovative financing for forest-based climate mitigation Governments are implementing the Bali Action Plan by pursuing REDD demonstration activities. These forest-based activities require significant stakeholder engagement, increased field carbon capacity and seed funding. This event presents a new financing vehicle to address these needs.	French Development Agency (AFD) and Conservation International (CI)	Chopin
18.00–20.00	Assessing effort-sharing for GHG emission reductions under an ambitious global climate scenario The differentiation of emission reduction efforts is an issue for the negotiations on a global and comprehensive post-2012 climate agreement. Three different and relatively sophisticated methods for the differentiation of emission reduction efforts in long-term scenarios will be presented at this event. The presentations will be given by Ecofys GmbH and the VTT Technical Research Centre of Finland.	VTT Technical Research Centre, Finland	Rubinstein
