

Sunday, 3 December, 10:00 to 13:00 in Plenary 2

Opening segment:

Moderated by: Harry Vreuls, Chair of the Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice (SBSTA)

- Jim Skea, Chair of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC)
- Vladimir Ryabinin, Executive Secretary of the Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission of UNESCO (IOC)
- Simonetta Cheli, Director of Earth Observation Programmes at the European Space Agency (ESA) on behalf of the Committee on Earth Observation Satellites (CEOS)
- Johan Stander, Director of Services Department, the World Meteorological Organization (WMO)
- Tahanyat Satti - GIS Analyst at Ministry of Climate Change, Islamabad, YOUNGO representative
- Cecilia Kinuthia-Njenga, Director at United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC)

Panel session: Understanding climate observation systems – identifying system observations' needs and requirements - Moderated by: Nathalie Flores, SBSTA Vice-Chair

- Panel 1: Updates on the state of the climate and the global climate observing system
- Panel 2: Observations for mitigation
- Panel 3: Observations for climate risks and resilience

A Q&A discussion will be held after each panel

Sunday, 3 December, 15:00 to 17:00 in MR 36/Blue zone

World Café: What is needed along the value chain from observation to services to support Parties and implementers in enhancing climate action in support of post-GST1 implementation?

- 12 tables dedicated to systematic observation, including one on Indigenous knowledge and one on community engagement respectively
- Each table to have one expert/facilitator and notetaker that remain in situ
- 2-hours; 4 rotations, 25 mins for each rotation, with 5-mins transition time