

Leadership development bootcamp

#2 Seven Practices for Radical Collaboration

The seven practices is a pragmatic and proven approach to working together across differences to move forward with speed, scale, and justice. Participants explore 'how' to implement radical collaboration in seven inter-connected do's and don'ts that are intended to produce movement and learning, and apply the approach to their own contexts to enable fast, big, and fair results.

Link to download the full book - Radical Climate Collaboration Guidebook