Annex

Dear Colleagues,

The secretariat prepared, under the guidance of the Adaptation Committee (AC) an audience assessment survey, as part of the AC communication strategy to better understand and target the end-users of its publications and other information products. We would therefore like to invite you to participate in the survey seeking to your valuable input. Your feedback is essential to help us strengthen our communication efforts and ensure that we are meeting your expectations and needs.

The survey will only take a few minutes to complete, and your responses will be kept confidential. Your feedback will help us better understand your preferences and interests, which will enable us to provide a more tailored content in the future.

To access the survey, please click <https://unfccc.int/audience-assessment-survey>. In this website, you will find the surveys available in the six UN official languages. If you encounter problems to access the website, we share with you below the links to the surveys:
